How would it change what we do, and how we view ourselves if we saw ourselves as Christ sees us? As beautiful. As Sacred. As His?

We are in a scared, intimate relationship with Christ. He knows every part of us. Intimacy is often viewed as something sexual, but in our relationship with Christ, intimacy is something different. In what ways would you say we experience intimacy with Christ as our “groom?”

In Psalm 63, David, whom we’ve historically known as someone powerful, a Man that has cut off the head of a giant, and killed bears and lions. A “Man’s man” if you will, pours out his heart to God in a very intimate way. Many of us have never spoken to another human the way David speaks to God.

Have someone read the Psalm aloud.

How can David’s intimate love letter to God influence the way we

-Praise

-Worship

-Rejoice

-Are Comforted

Spend some time praying for one another’s needs as beloved people of God.
